Las Vegas, NV (KTNV) -- Epicurean Charitable Foundation of Las Vegas celebrated National Mentorship Month by hosting the inaugural Strikes for Scholarship bowling fundraiser Saturday at South Point casino-hotel.

Some notable attendees of the event included cast members from the "Rock of Ages," "Jersey Boys" and "Million Dollar Quartet."

Proceeds from the event went to benefit ECF's scholarship program, which provides full ride scholarships to local students interested in pursuing careers in hospitality or the culinary arts.

Strikes for Scholarships was sponsored by Five Star Restaurants LLC and South Point.
