HOME DESIGN GURU NATE BERKUS' HOLDS BOOK SIGNING

Home décor boutique J.Glenn partnered with Artifact Creative Boutique to host Nate Berkus' first book signing for his latest design memoir "The Things That Matter" at J.Glenn located inside Boca Park. During the public book signing, more than 200 of Nate Berkus' fans came out to get books signed and take photos with Berkus. A private sold-out VIP event was also held prior to the public book signing where proceeds of ticket sales were donated to Habitat for Humanity Las Vegas. Approximately $4,000 was raised for the charity during the VIP event where Berkus spoke to the audience and held a brief Q&A before mingling with guests.

MEANINGFUL MONDAYS KICKS OFF AT ASIAN HOT SPOT POPPY DEN

"Meaningful Mondays," a community program that benefits local charity organizations in Las Vegas, was held at Poppy Den inside Tivoli Village on April 1 to benefit Epicurus Charitable Foundation. ECF received 20 percent of the proceeds made from that evening's profits. As well, students and board members from ECF were present at the event to show how the community and students benefit from the organizations coming together.
